My great grand father Clarence B. Rundell started this cemetery with the burial of his brother Ernest Eudey Rundell in 1904. The second burial was Clarence Rundell's father-in-law H. A. French. My great grand father and families just started burying their people there. This land belonged to the ranch my great grand father owned and there were no problems with the next lines of owners until the late 1960's and a new owner took over. He padlocked the access gate leading to the property, so no one had access to the cemetery. The road up to the cemetery branched off the main ranch road and was easy to access the cemetery. After several years of debate and problems the county paid to have a new road built in from main Sheephorn Road and they acquired the land the cemetery sits on and had it fenced. There was a lot of bitterness between the people that had family buried up there and the land owner, but that is all in the past. The cemetery is dedicated to Walter Forster and Hank Hinton on the entrance sign, who worked hard to get new access and road put in, but never lived to see it completed.
