Custodial History (Provenance): Box of items relating to Gypsum found in a trunk at a garage sale in Denver. The box was delivered to Pam Schultz, Town of Gypsum, by an unidentified person. Pam Schultz, Jenny Ellringer and Danette Schlegel organized the contents of the box and donated it to the Eagle Public Library, Local History Department, on November 29, 2006.

Note (Abstract): The collection contains photos of the Horn, Quinlan, Grimes, and Gates families; receipts and documents of Sarah Dougherty and R. E. Quinlan; personal letters to Agnes Quinlan; student work, Mosher-Quinlan children; newspapers. The earliest date is 1891; the latest date is 1964.

Preferred Citation: Dougherty, Quinlan, Mosher Papers, Eagle Public Library, Eagle Valley Library District.

Processing Information: Processed by: Jaci Spuhler; Completed February 2008

Arrangement: The items are arranged by format as received from the Town of Gypsum by the Eagle Public Library. Within each category, the arrangement is by date (if known).

Historical Note: Sarah Dougherty was born October 9, 1843, in Donegal County, Ireland. She moved to Leadville in 1872 and then located on a ranch on the lower Eagle River in 1886, raising livestock. She died on September 17, 1917. Her sister, Elizabeth, married J. P. Quinlan, who had daughters (Agnes, Elizabeth and Mary) and a son (Emmett). Agnes married [James] Lawrence Mosher. All three families lived in the Gypsum-McCoy area. This collection includes correspondence written by and addressed to members of these families.
