

The Eagle Valley Library District and Walking Mountains Science Center Present

The 2012 High Country Speaker Series

Climate Change in Colorado: Current and Future Trends

Tuesday, January 31, 6:30 pm

“Climate Change Adaptive Strategies for Mountain Communities”

Betsy Neely: Senior Conservation Planner, The Nature Conservancy

At Walking Mountains
Science Center

Tuesday, February 14, 6:30 pm

“Observed Climate Change Effects in Colorado with Special Regard to Rocky Mountain National Park”

Dr. Jill Baron: Ecosystem Ecologist, USGS and Senior Research Ecologist, Colorado State University

At Avon Public Library

Tuesday, February 28, 6:30 pm

“Colorado's Amazing Climate”

Nolan Doesken: Colorado State Climatologist

At Avon Public Library

Wednesday, March 14, 6:30 pm

“Really Hot and Really Cool Times in the Rocky Mountains”

Richard Stucky: Curator of Paleocology & Evolution at Denver Museum of Nature and Science

At Walking Mountains
Science Center

Eagle Valley
Library District

All programs are free and open to the public. Reservations are recommended but not required. For more information, call the Avon Public Library (970) 949-6797, or Walking Mountains Science Center (970) 827-9725.

walking mountains™
a science learning center explore your curious nature