DOUGHERTY FAMILY COLLECTION – 1.5 LINEAR FEET

ABSTRACT

The Dougherty/Doherty Family Collection contains items from Dougherty family members and extended family. Many lived in the Gypsum and/or McCoy area of Eagle County, Colorado. This collection includes items from different family members of the Dougherty, Quinlan, and Mosher families, respectively. Various spelling of “Dougherty” exist. Items in our archival collection have been copied and are viewable in our reference (REF) area of our Colorado History area. Photographs in this collection can be accessed on the Historical Photographs webpage, our Digital Archive, and are listed as the collection 2006.005.

Sarah DOUGHERTY was born on October 9, 1843 in Donegal County, Ireland. She moved to Leadville, Colorado, in 1872 and then homesteaded on a ranch on the lower Eagle River in 1886, raising livestock. She died on September 17, 1917.

Her sister, Elizabeth Dougherty, married J.P. QUINLAN, and they had three daughter—Agnes, Elizabeth, and Mary—and a son, Emmett.

Agnes Quinlan would marry Lawrence MOSHER.
