

WILLIAM H. LUBY PAPERS – 0.5 LINEAR FEET (1 EXPANDED FOLDER)

ABSTRACT

William Harold Luby graduated from University of Colorado Law and practiced law in Eagle, Colorado. After service in the Army during World War I, he returned to Eagle and was district attorney for the 5th Judicial District before serving as District Judge, 5th Judicial District, from 1934 to 1969. He was a member of the Masons, American Legion of Red Cliff, Lions, and BPOE. An obituary and additional photographs are available.

The papers in this collection were passed down from William H. Luby to his son, John H. Luby. John H. Luby added the most recent clipping (1993) and donated them to the Eagle County Historical Society.

SCOPE & CONTENT

The items in this collection are both personal and business in nature. This small manuscript collection is housed in one large expandable folder in the rare item filing of Eagle Valley Library District Local History Department archival holdings. All newspaper clippings are copies.
